

February 2019 in the Parish of Bilborough and Strelley

It's all Good News in our Parish
Lots of new things will be happening
during 2019

First of all, we will be welcoming
Revd Peter Shaw and his family to Bilborough and Strelley.

Revd Peter will be licensed in February.
Do look out for him and say "Hello" he will be pleased to meet you.

Revd Peter will be starting something new and exciting at St John's Church on Graylands Road later in the Spring.
We are also hoping to make improvements to both St John's Church and to the Social Centre during the early part of the year.

Watch this space!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

What else is happening?

You are invited to come along to Messy church.

This is church but in a new way!

It's for everyone who enjoys a bit of craft, some games, lots of fun, time to learn about Jesus, a bit of singing and prayer and a friendly get together over a meal. No age limits. Everyone is welcome

Messy Church is at St Martins Church, Bilborough NG8 3BH
On the first Wednesday of the month from 3.30 -5.30pm

The Next Messy church is on Wednesday 6th February at 3.30pm

Why not come along and give it a try?

Are you too busy for church on Sundays?

Would you like to worship during the week?

*Try our Informal service of Holy Communion
At Lincoln Court
(next to St Hugh's church)
Monday 18th Feb 11.30am
All welcome*
